

Transparency Statement in accordance with the Law on modern slavery of the United Kingdom

This statement on slavery and human trafficking is published in accordance with Section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act of the United Kingdom 2015.

This 2022, has been carried out the implementation of our declaration on modern slavery and human trafficking, in our desire to continue improving our professional practices to fight against slavery and human trafficking.

We have a zero-tolerance policy towards modern forms of slavery, both in all departments of our organization and in supplier or subcontracted companies. to fulfill these objectives, Cedinsa carries out its activities in an open and transparent manner. Cedinsa's values are solid and transparent. From Cedinsa we are proud that our values reflect the vision of our staff, as well as our commitment.

The processes followed for risk assessment have been

- Identify possible risks in our procedures and ensure the adherence of our suppliers to our values and code of ethics
- Training in topics related to modern slavery to ensure understanding of its risks.
- Make all employees aware of the Company's Code of Ethics.

The indicators that allow us to monitor the processes have been

- Participation in training
- Monitoring, research, and response to information collected through the ethical channel (organsupervisio@cedinsa.cat).
- The distribution of our values to our suppliers.

Barcelona January 25, 2022

Javier Vizcaíno, CEO

