CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY &
SUSTAINABILITY REPORT

2022

Our journey for People and Planet is an ongoing one and we are proud to have made significant progress through new initiatives and significant steps on this patch.

The team's efforts got endorsed by achieving a platinum rating by EcoVadis with a score of 78/100.

Taking responsibility and sustainability to the next level for both our company but also for our clients and their brands through effective materials, products, and packaging concepts, backed by optimised supply chain and procurement solutions, remains one of our key priorities and objectives.

Not only as intermediate SME agency doing well for people and planet, but proactively support our supply & manufacturing partners and their employees, as well our clients and brands.

We have in 2022 despite of challenging conditions in the market further strengthened our focus on sustainability and responsibility on our journey to meet our sustainable development goals for 2030.

For 2023, the objective is clear – we continue our roadmap and dare to become even more responsible and sustainable.
